

Alpha Epsilon Delta

National Health Pre-professional Honor Society

2024 Scholarship Awards

- Each chapter is allowed to submit two scholarship applications.
- Applicants must be/ have been a national member and active in their chapter.
- Applicants must be graduating seniors or within 2 years of graduation.
- Applicants must have been accepted to or matriculated into a medical, dental or other health care related professional school.

Required Elements of the Scholarship Application

1. Completion of the electronic Scholarship Application Form:
2. Submission of the following items in a single email to aednationaloffices@tcu.edu with “LastName_Scholarship Application” in the subject line within 2 business days of submission of the electronic application:

- Official or unofficial transcript(s) from all undergraduate work.
- Letter of support from the Chapter Advisor with physical signature
- Digital high quality photograph for publication in our Society’s journal, “The Scalpel”

Incomplete applications will not be accepted, and any materials submitted but not requested will not be considered.

All items must be received by the national office by April 30, 2024.

Scholarship applicants will be notified of the results in Fall 2024.

“... dedicated to the encouragement and recognition of excellence in pre-professional health scholarship, including medicine, dentistry, veterinary, & others.”